BAPS Charities Walk

Every BAPS Charities Walk is a powerful and inspiring opportunity for individuals to unite as a community to support a local cause. Throughout North America, BAPS Charities Walks support a wide range of community, health, education and humanitarian activities.

"Through BAPS Charities, selfless giving comes to life! It's inspiring to see the community working together for others!"

—Walk Participant, Houston, TX

In 2013, over 13,500 participants walked over 45,000 miles at events that took place in 54 cities throughout North America. We are grateful to all of the volunteers and sponsors for their time, effort and support in helping us build a better community, one step at a time.

"BAPS Charities has been a great organization in our city for past thirteen years. I congratulate BAPS Charities for being the role model in our local community. I applaud all the volunteers for their service and dedication and appreciate your support to the city of Clifton."

Mayor Jim Anzaldi
